

Luca Bulgarelli graduated in double bass at Conservatory of Campobasso and received a scholarship at Sienajazz. He plays regularly in the most important international jazz festival like Perugia, Pescara, New York, Berlin, Hamburg, Leipzig, Paris, Lyon, Tel Aviv, Budapest, Beijing, Algeri, Montreal, Den Haag, Warsaw, Tokyo, Shanghai, Buenos Aires, Montevideo.

He has collaborated with Roberto Gatto, Enrico Pieranunzi, Maurizio Giammarco, Enrico Rava, Paolo Fresu, Rita Marcotulli, Mariapia De Vito, Nicola Stilo, Rosario Giuliani, Stefano Bollani, Gianluca Petrella, Fabrizio Bosso, Gunther Schuller, Kenny Wheeler, Mike Manieri, George Garzone, Toninho Horta, Alain Jean Marie, Mundell Lowe, Philip Catherine, Rick Margitza, Bob Mintzer, Tooth Thielemans and Mimmo Locasciulli, Francesco De Gregori, Goran Guzmanac, Daniele Silvestri, Beppe Servillo, Paola Turci, Daniele Silvestri e Sergio Cammariere.

He plays with Trio Aurum (Claudio Filippini and Marcello Di Leonardo), with Enrico Pieranunzi's Trio and Quartet, with Roberto Gatto, Mariapia De Vito and Fabrizio Bosso Quartets and with Bosso-Giroto latin quartet.

He did masterclasses at Saint Louis Music Centre and at Università della Musica in Rome.